

ANNIVERSARY SEASON

THE ULTIMATE INTIMATE THEATRE EXPERIENCE

25 YEARS

of thought-provoking, conversation-starting, beautifully-crafted theatre in a uniquely intimate setting.

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our 25th Anniversary Season!

When Founding Artistic Director Barbara Oliver first hired me a quarter century ago, I had no idea that Aurora Theatre Company would so gracefully evolve into a Bay Area institution, nor that I would be working with the company for so much of my life. Way back when, we all thought of our humble beginnings at the Berkeley City Club as a risky experiment. Starting a professional company in a room that sat only 67 patrons seemed like a financial disaster waiting to happen. However, with the help of a great many generous, caring people both onstage and off, we're now here to celebrate 25 years of intimate, exceptional theatre that spotlights the talents of our finest local artists.

Our sensational six-play season starts off the way Aurora did in 1991 with Dorothy Bryant's Dear Master, a dialogue in letters between George Sand and Gustave Flaubert.

Looking forward to the rest of the season, we'll be presenting two Bay Area premieres: Leni, a multimedia piece about German film director Leni Riefenstahl, and Abi Morgan's chilling Splendour; one West Coast Premiere: Safe House, a heart-wrenching drama about the antebellum South; and the US Premiere of a sold-out play I couldn't get a ticket to in London last year, the conversation-starting Temple. Additionally, we'll be producing our first play by Tom Stoppard, The Real Thing. Stoppard is the playwright most requested by our audiences over the years and we're thrilled to finally produce this masterwork. Each in its own way depict revolutions both personal and political.

We hope you'll join us for Aurora's 25th Anniversary Season! It will be a celebration not just of Aurora, but of the talent and tenacity of some of the very best theatre artists in the Bay Area and beyond.

TOM ROSS Artistic Director

"I have nothing but praise for the Aurora, whose repertory is impressively wide-ranging. No matter where you're sitting, the 150-seat performance space puts you within a few yards of the performances."

- Terry Teachout, The Wall Street Journal

BY DOROTHY BRYANT | DIRECTED BY JOY CARLIN SEPTEMBER 2 - OCTOBER 2

The flagship play upon which Aurora Theatre Company was built, Dear Master by prize-winning Berkeley author Dorothy Bryant was originally produced at the Berkeley City Club in 1991. A dialogue in letters between the two great 19th century French novelists, George Sand and Gustave Flaubert, Dear Master is an elegantly orchestrated play, providing flesh-and-blood portraits of these famed intellectual writers and revealing their fears, desires, heated opinions, and friendship during a time as violent and politically polarized as our own.

BY KEITH JOSEF ADKINS | DIRECTED BY L. PETER CALLENDER NOVEMBER 4 - DECEMBER 4

Set in Kentucky in 1843, Safe House examines the lives of one free family of color and the tensions that arise between two brothers with conflicting aspirations. While one brother dreams of opening his own business, the other risks everything in an effort to help fugitive slaves escape on the Underground Railroad. Based on true events in the lives of his ancestors, Adkins tells a gripping story of love, freedom, and survival against impossible odds.

BY TOM STOPPARD | DIRECTED BY TIMOTHY NEAR JANUARY 27 - FEBRUARY 26

When Henry, a cerebral playwright, is asked by his mistress to ghost-write a script, his life begins to imitate his art too closely. More comfortable with words than feelings, Henry must decide which of his emotions are the "real thing." Stoppard tackles questions of love and marriage with dazzling comedy and more than one play-within-a-play, sending his characters and the audience reeling between authenticity and artifice, intellect and passion, and love and fidelity.

"SO PACKED WITH WIT, IDEAS AND FEELINGS ... STOPPARD'S MOST MOVING PLAY AND THE MOST BRACING PLAY ANYONE HAS WRITTEN ABOUT LOVE AND MARRIAGE IN YEARS." ~ NY TIMES

BY SARAH GREENMAN | DIRECTED BY JON TRACY MARCH 10 - APRIL 23

Leni Riefenstahl was the brilliant German film director of Triumph of the Will and Olympia, films cited by Pauline Kael as "the two greatest films ever directed by a woman," and which also served as propaganda for Adolf Hitler and the Nazis. In Sarah Greenman's wildly creative multimedia play, Riefenstahl's older and younger selves edit a film of the director's life, playing out and reshooting scenes from her past until the director finds the beauty she is seeking. Leni is an extraordinary work about artistic responsibility, narcissism, and denial.

BY STEVE WATERS | DIRECTED BY TOM ROSS APRIL 14 - MAY 14

In October 2011, Occupy London set up camp outside one of London's most beloved institutions, St. Paul's Cathedral. Soon, the building that had famously survived floods, terrorist threats, and the Blitz closed its doors, and the City of London took legal action against Occupy to remove protesters. Steve Waters' new play is a powerful, fictional account of the behind-the-scenes machinations by the church and city leadership, dramatizing the turmoil faced by those who must decide which of their ideals they'll betray.

BY ABI MORGAN | DIRECTED BY BARBARA DAMASHEK JUNE 23 - JULY 23

A revolution grows violent in an unnamed country while four women await the arrival of its embattled dictator inside the opulent Presidential Palace – his wife, her best friend, a British journalist, and a translator. As the political tension escalates, time refracts and earlier scenes replay from different perspectives. Morgan, the award-winning British playwright and screenwriter (The Iron Lady, Suffragette), takes the audience on a breath-taking journey with a fascinating theatricality that is at once compassionate, dispassionate, and probing.

"ABI MORGAN HAS ELABORATED A PLAY OF REMARKABLE INTENSITY AND RICHNESS. SPLENDOUR GLEAMS WITH ICE-COOL WIT, GLISTENS WITH THE SWEAT OF ANIMAL FEAR." ~ TIME OUT
